

International Conference
„Polish Public Prosecution in the face of organizational changes of 2010”
April 15, 2011
(Warsaw, Supreme Court of Justice)

10.00 Opening of the conference :

First President of the Supreme Court

– Stanisław Dąbrowski

President of MEDEL (European Judges and Public Prosecutors for Democracy and Fundamental Rights)

– Vito Monetti - Deputy Prosecutor General with the Cassation Court, Italy

10.15 – 10.35

„The role of the Prosecutor General in the structure of judiciary after adoption of revised Prosecution Act on March 31, 2011 .”

– Andrzej Seremet - Prosecutor General

10.35 – 10.55

„The role of the executive branch in development of autonomy of Public Prosecution”

– Krzysztof Kwiatkowski – Minister of Justice

10.55 – 11.15

„National Prosecution Council as the guardian of Public Prosecution independence” – representative of National Prosecution Council

– Krzysztof Parulski - Chief Military Prosecutor, Deputy Prosecutor General

11.15 – 11.35

„The organization of Polish Public Prosecution vs. the principle of independence of the prosecution”

– Zdzisław Brodzisz – prosecutor, Prosecutor General Office

11.35 – 11.55

Coffee break

11.55 – 12.15

„Independent European Prosecutor: a challenge for the European Union”

– Eric Alt – judge of the Supreme Court, Paris

12.15 – 13.30

Discussion panel: "The reform of the organization of Public Prosecution vs. fundamental principles of criminal procedure"

Introduction

1. „The reform of the organization of Public Prosecution as a tool to execute the role of the public prosecutor" –
Jadwiga Żywolewska – Ławniczak, judge of the Supreme Court of Justice

2. „The reform of the organization of Public Prosecution vs. the principle of legalism and the contradictory principle"

– Sebastian Ładoś PhD, judge of the District Court

3. „The reform of the organization of Public Prosecution vs. the principle of sound administration"

– Dariusz Drajewicz. – judge of the District Court

Discussion

Summary of the discussion panel

13.30

Closing of the conference